Dear Colleagues & Friends of NCSP:

I am pleased to announce the following management promotions:

Brent Crabtree – Vice President of Operations

Brent is starting his 31st year in New Castle having started in production after his honorary discharge from the United States Air Force. He received a degree in Computer Science from Ivy Tech in 2004. Brent has been ensuring the integrity of the logistics critical to our delivery performance and customer service over the years as well as an integral part of the operations team.

Beau Tipton – Operations Manager

Beau is in his 18th year with New Castle and has extensive experience as operations supervisor concentrating on plant throughput, quality, and delivery performance. Beau is also a key contributor to our IT Committee working on upgrades to our systems.

Adam Richardson – Logistics Manager

Adam is in his 17th year with New Castle. For most of Adam's career he has focused on warehouse and shipping operations but has expanded his responsibilities as an operations supervisor in the past few years along with his Logistics responsibilities.

Please join me in congratulating and supporting those newly appointed that will continue to strengthen the New Castle organization as we move forward.

Regards,

Kevin Keeley
